ABOUT THE PROGRAM

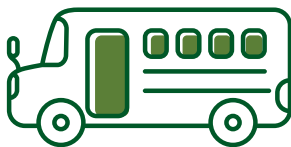

The primary goal of the Treehouse Afterschool Program is to support and stimulate the growth of young children in all areas of development - physical, intellectual, social and emotional, while supporting the guiding principles of the PJCC. We regard each child as a special individual and respect and appreciate the differences between children. Our age-appropriate program supports and challenges each child as they grow.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Treehouse @ the J admits children of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, or socio-economic background. Treehouse @ the J does not discriminate on the basis of these factors in the administration of its admissions policies or financial assistance program, and is committed to a supportive financial assistance process.
